Re: Svitlana/Oleksandr Petrenko

Svitlana/Oleksandr Petrenko has set up an appointment to see you. S/he is head of the NGO «Equal rights», which is one of the biggest regional organizations involved in the protection of LGBT rights in Ukraine. Every year, this organization carries out public demonstrations in support of LGBT rights in various Ukraine's cities. This year, S/he plans to organize an annual demonstration in a city. S/he is concerned because s/he has received threats of violence against this demonstration from some local radical organizations. In addition, the City Council filed a lawsuit to prohibit this demonstration.

Re: Liubomyr/Horpyna Guteniuk

Liubomyr/Horpyna Guteniuk has set up an appointment to see you. S/he has been working in the big IT-company for five years. Six months ago, s/he informed the supervisor and the co-owner of the company that several things in the office prevent her/him from freely practicing her/his religion and asked to accommodate her/his needs. However, s/he remained unhappy with the response and feels discriminated, therefore, would like to discuss with you how to bring the employer to any liability.

Re: Svitlana/Ivan Romanesko

Svitlana/Ivan Romanesko has set up an appointment to see you. S/he works from home running a blog that is popular online under the title “Refresh Ukraine”. The blog criticizes government mistakes and highlights corruption among Politicians and Businessmen. S/he is concerned because s/he has received threats against her/him and wants to know what her legal options are. S/he also has a problem because s/he may have issues with someone who claims she violated his privacy.

Re: Wisdom James

Wisdom James, a student who is studying for his Masters’ degree in Ukraine and who is from Africa has set up an appointment to see you. He says he needs your help for some problems he is having with his University and some guys who live in his neighborhood. He believes he is being treated differently because he is a foreigner and a minority.
